Our shots speak for our reputation. Go ahead and be mesmerized, feast your eyes on some of our works by leafing through the following pages.

Are you planning to launch some new dishes soon? Are there new beverages you need to promote? Do you need professional food shots for your menu, murals, packaging, calendar, brochure or social media?

If yes, then let us shoot your dishes for you! Here are some reasons why:

Our food photos stand out.

Our shots look really good, it screams “look at me, I’m delicious!” At Pixelpro, we provide mouth-watering food shots that attract people’s attention. We do this with proper lighting, creative composition and of course food styling. We have photographed thousands of dishes from various cuisines for over a decade, that’s why we can assure you that you are in good hands.

Value for your money

We provide photos that can be used for various marketing collaterals and social media. We will give you creatively composed shots that fit your posters, banner, flyers, tent cards and menu perfectly. You will get photos that your designers can use with minimal enhancement. If the shots needs to be retouched, we can help you with that too.

We are well equipped for every job.

We have over 25 studio lights composed of continuous lights and strobes. We have imacs and macbook pros for instant high resolution viewing. Our complete set of modifiers allow us to photograph all kinds of subjects with different effect. If we can’t shoot at your location, we can do it in our studio located in Makati.

We are professionals.

We are very passionate about our job and we give our 100% each and every time. We are flexible when it comes to schedule, location, professional rates and terms of payment. Our clients often say “we love your work and we are happy, good job!” It will be our pleasure to give you the same experience.
